

August 7th 1839

Dear Maria

I hope you are now able to wield your poor arm without pain, I am very anxious to hear how you do - This note will ~~you~~ be handed you by Sophia Ford, a (relative of the Sevenpots that Caroline loved so well) she is from Dedham an Abolitionist of the right sort.
She is working diligently for the fair in October, has great industry & perseverance, wants patterns & hints give will you talk with her, she sees very clearly the grounds of the New Organization, & from the time it

Blair lectured in Dedham & urged the taking of the Abolitionist has despised the want of sincerity displayed by the advocates of this picketness. —

I met her by accident at her sick Aunt's & asked what she was working, she said a pair of shoes for the anti Slavery fair, I was really delighted to meet ~~her~~ a Sister in the faith & asked her to go home with me she did & passed an hour or two — she wants to see you & I want to have her

Yours most affectionately
J. W. Robbins

Page

3

0

L. M. Robbins

1839

Miss Maria Chapman
West Street
Boston

Miss L. Ford

